Catarrh Cured

The best authorities say catarrh is a disease of the blood. Therefore local applications cannot cure. Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy-Hood's Sarsaparilla. By thoroughly purifying the blood, this great medicine reduces the inflammation of the mucous membrane and stops all catarrhal discharges of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, bladder and generative organs. Catarrh is especially dangerous in persons who inherit or have acquired a predisposition to consumption. In these and all other catarrhal cases, Hood's Sarsaparilla so thoroughly renovates the blood and restores strength and vigor that it permanently cures. In fact, because of the character of the disease, and the peculiar merit of the remedy, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only common sense treatment for catarrh.

of health in favor of the State laboratory bill.

Dr. Caverly explained the work of the laboratory during the past two years. He gave a detailed estimate of the expenses for the next two years if the bill goes into effect. The expense is $9,950 per year. Added to this is $2,000 per year for school of instruction and publishing reports.

Senstor Dunnett asked the doctor what kind of a plan it would be to fix the salaries of the various officers. Dr. Caverly replied that the board of health would be glad to be rid of that duty. The salary of the director shoul: be $3,000 annually and that the salaries combined be estimated at $7,500 per year. The present salaries amount to $5,500. He believed the results had been good during the past ten years.

Dr. Wiltzie, State chemist, said he had examined nearly 200 cases of beer and whiskey. Dr. Cavalry believed the public health would be imposed upon if the sanitary inspector was not engaged.

Senator DeBoer asked if the laboratory was an assistance to the board of health. Dr. Cavelry answered yes, instancing the matter of diphtheria cases, from 1882 to 1856. Five years previous to the establishment of the board of health, the average rate of deaths per year from diphtheria was 132; but for five years previous to the establishment of the board of health, the average rate of deaths per year from diphtheria was 132; but for five years previous to 1899, the average ra e was 55, and for the year 1899, after the establishment of the laboratory, it was only 21, a very low rate. only 21, a very low rate.

Friday, November 9.

The joint committee on game and fish submitted three bills this morning, one regulating the taking of white fish, one permitting the commissioners to shorten the time of taking certain fish and one to protect the fishing in Lake Morey.

It is somewhat of a question as to how the special committee appointed by the speaker to consider the bill on the re-location of the Capitol will view the matter from the standpoint of geographical location. Can the members from Morristown, Newport, Bennington, Cavendish and Wilmington reach Rutland or Montpeller the easier?

The attempt of the gentleman from Barre town to get in a final bill was successful by a tremendous majority, on a rising vote, regardless of good arguments against it. The bill was to compel paupers to reside in the towns supporting them. Another followed and was likewise admitted by a large majority. This action entirely abrorates the jority. This action entirely abrogates the rule and renders the time limit utterly senseless.

The insistance of the House on allowing the introduction of a flood of bills, regard-less of the rules, evidently rendered some members desperate, as they compelled the

THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

But little of interest in opposition to the State Board of Agriculture was developed at the hearing at the S ate House Thurs-day, Chairman Davis of Pomfret presided. About fifty were in attendance including the members of the committee or agricul-

Mr. Currier of Troy, the real author of the bill to abolish the board, was the chief spokesman in opposition, with Tinkham of Pomfret as lieutenant. Those who spoke in favor of the board were the secretary, C. J. Beil of Walden, ex-Secretary V. I. Spear of Randolph, Professor J. L. Hills of Burlington, Representative Burditt of Pittsford and Alpha Messer of Rochester, Mr. Currier's effort was to belittle the work of the board and to show that it was a useless organization, and of no benefit to the farming population of the State; consequently the appropriation for its support is a waste of money. His disjoined efforts in this direction were entirely futile, and fully refuted by the remarks from the other side.

Secretary Bell spoke at some length in regard to the labor of the board as cattle commissioners, plainly showing the good working of the board in this direction. In apply to Mr. Currier he gave statistics in M Spear also gave testimony in this direction, correcting some of the statements of Currier.

Mr. Barber of Barre town, Mr Reynolds of Manchester, Mr. Pettingill of Grafton, and Mr. Chandler of Barnard asked the consent of the House to introduce bills. farmers, the remedy is not in the backward step of abblishing the board, but in such a change of policy—involving a greater expenditure if necessary—as will make its work of greater efficiency to the agricultural interests of the S ate.

But at the hearing it was not shown that the policy of the board was wrong, or its work inefficient. The sweeping charge was made that "it is good for nothing and should be abblished." This is no argument why it should be abblished. The testim my should be abolished." This is no argument why it should be abolished. The testim my at the hearing was all in the opposite direction. None of the friends of the board claim that it is perfect, or that it is the embodiment of all of the agriculteral tesching in the State. I is only one of the many text books which go to make up the agricultural carriculum of the farmers life-long education.

Two years ago the chief objection to the board was its work as cattle commissioners in rying to eradicate tuberculosis from the cattle of the Suate. This work is now com-mended by those who oppose the board, and their erratic efforts are now wholly directed against the institute work of the board.

A First-Class Service. Through the courtesy of R. H. Lyon ocal m.oager of the New England Fele phone exchange, free election bulletins were issued on Tuesday night to the news-paper offices and to the gathering at Armory hal. This service was first-class, in all repects, fully, promptly and courteously rendered.

Manager Lyon, aside from personally superintending his corps of assistants, installed a telegraph instrument, which was operated in conjunction with the telephonic service by Robert Rogers, of the Montpeller and Wells River ticket office, thus making this service prompt and efficient. It was highly appreciated by the public, and particularly by the newspapers, a recognition on the part of the Journal that was overlooked yesterday in the presence of many things for publication.
